The Heath Sisters

Meaghan Heath, mezzo-soprano

Rebecca Heath, soprano

Australian-American sisters MEAGHAN and REBECCA HEATH have been a duet as far back as they can remember, performing on Australian National television at the ages of ten and twelve. Even as children, it was clear that their voices had a beautiful compatibility and harmony only achieved by siblings. Each with over 15 years of private vocal training and Masters degrees in Voice Performance, they have since made their marks as young opera singers, performing leading roles in opera productions in their native Texas and around the world.

Based in Houston, TX, THE HEATH SISTERS have turned their love of singing into a career, specializing in Classical, Broadway, Popular, Folk and Sacred music genres. Always searching for extraordinary musical selections to perform, THE HEATH SISTERS are experienced in singing in several different languages including English, Spanish, Italian, Latin, French, German, Japanese, Russian, Czech, Finnish, and Welsh. Academics as well as Artists, THE HEATH SISTERS are always eager to fulfill whatever musical requests a client may have—a new piece in a new language is all in a day's work.

THE HEATH SISTERS pride themselves on their versatility—Whether they are asked to create a lasting memory at a couple's Wedding with "Ave Maria", give comfort during the loss of a loved one with "Amazing Grace", sing an hour of Scottish Folk songs, perform a set of Japanese Art songs, carol an afternoon of Christmas melodies, or prepare a two hour concert of Classical, Broadway, and Popular tunes, THE HEATH SISTERS deliver a polished, engaging, and unforgettable product to their audience.

“Just want to say that you guys were great and we really appreciated and enjoyed having you as a part of our wedding. We received so many comments regarding how good the music and singing were! Our guests were absolutely amazed. A lot of guests asked how we knew you Meaghan and if you were a friend of ours.
